Grayling Man Indicted by FBI

by Joe Schrader

A 45-year old Grayling resident was arrested by F.B.I. Agents on Tuesday for possession and unlawful transfer of a firearm.

The arrest of George Wesley Erickson, Rte. 2, 2234 Old Lake Road, was a part of an 18-month project directed at area fences and thieves. Commencing early Tuesday, officers of the Michigan State Police and F.B.I. jointly began executing 103 state and federal arrest warrants in connection with a major anti-fencing undercover operation in the Detroit metropolitan area.

Crawford County Sheriff Curt Haas was personally notified of Erickson's arrest by F.B.I. officials on Tuesday morning, although, according to Haas, he knew nothing of the investigation

The incident is still under investigation by the Sheriff who predicts the likelihood of an arrest in the matter.

Bear Visits Frederic Bank

By Merna Newberry

On Tuesday, July 11th, the Frederic Office of the Grayling State Bank was visited by a huge Black Bear. The bear appeared around 2:00 p.m. directly across from the bank, and spent about 15 minutes wandering back and forth along the railroad tracks.

A large crowd of people gathered to watch the bear's antics. It didn't seem to have any fear of the people that had gathered. After looking around and investigating the situation over, it cauntered back into the swamp. On other occasions bears have been sighted. Rumor has it that there are 3 bears in the area.

Calling All River Boats

There are few sights more pleasing than the graceful lines of a long-boat slipping silently through the wooded, serpentine AuSable corridor, as its occupants stalk the wary natives below. Equally appealing is the ballet of the fly line as it twirls and dances to its final pirouette on the surface.

These familiar sights are an important part of the history of our beautiful area, and the reason for the annual River Boat Regatta. Each year this gala event draws a good number of River Boats, owners, spectators and fun-lovers, and we know this year will be no exception. This year's Regatta will be held Saturday, August 19, starting at 10:00 a.m. with boat registration and a breakfast at Bernie Fowler's Edgewater On the AuSable Resort.

Spread the word and make plans to pull those old "river queens" out of mothballs for the float. We'd like to top the record 32 boats registered at last year's Regatta and make this truly one of the Grayling area's most enjoyable summer events. Plan to be on hand.

Annual Meeting of Trout Unlimited

The George Mason Chapter of T.U. will conduct its annual meeting on Wednesday, July 26, at the Holiday Inn, Grayling.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. Howard Tanner, director of the Department of Natural Resources.

Cocktails at 6:30 and dinner at 7:30 p.m. Menu is Swiss Steak. The price is $7.50.

This meeting is open to the public and everyone is invited to come.

For tickets or reservations please call Art Weideman at Cornell Realty, 348-6481 or any T.U. member.

Grayling Art Show

The Grayling Art Show will be held Saturday, July 29th, from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. in front of the Grayling State Bank. Judges will pick winners for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places, and several honorable mentions. The Grayling State Bank has donated cash prizes of $25, $15 and $10 for 1st, 2nd and 3rd, as well as a gold certificate of entry for each person who enters the show.

Bring your entries, ready for hanging, between 9 and 10 a.m. on Saturday morning. Each person may bring five pieces to be entered. Your material should be picked up very soon after 4 o'clock. If you have many articles for sale, contact Ernie Dawson or the Chamber of Commerce for space in the Milltown Arts and Craft Show. If you have such a space, please do not enter part of it in the Grayling Art Show.

Michigan Troops in Review

[Special to The Avalanche]

A review of troops by Governor William Milliken highlighted award ceremonies at Camp Grayling today. More than 4,000 men and women of the Michigan Guard and 1,000 Indiana and Ohio Guard members were present for the annual event, which marked the halfway point in the Guard's two-week summer training session.

Gov. Milliken reviewed the troops by open jeep on the Camp Grayling parade field, the 68th such review since camp opened. Several hundred visitors were also on hand to watch the review.

Milliken presented a number of unit and individual awards during the ceremonies. The Eisenhower Award was presented to the Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment of the 146th Military Police Battalion of Lansing. The award honors the most outstanding unit in the Michigan Army National Guard. Criteria for the award are attendance at unit meetings, unit performance and recruiting and retention. Unit commander Capt. Larry Ware accepted the award.

The Brigadier General Earl R. Stewart Medal is awarded annually to the outstanding enlisted soldier of the Michigan Army National Guard. This is the most prestigious award for enlisted personnel that is presented during annual training, according to National Guard officials. This year's recipient was Sergeant James L. Horner of Rochester, Mich. He is a staff sergeant with the 144th Military Police Company of Owosso. Runner up was Staff Sergeant Adam G. Longstreth, a member of the Combat Support Company, First Battalion, 246th Armor, of Three Rivers, Mich.

Governor Milliken presented the National Guard Trophy to the 464th Service Company of Jackson. The award is presented to the unit with the best scores in annual weapons qualification firing. The 464th is commanded by Capt. Donald F. Jagow.

The National Guard Bureau Award for Efficiency and Maintenance is presented to the most efficient company-sized unit in maintenance of material and maintenance management. This year's award was presented to the 461st General Supply Company of Detroit. Unit commander is Capt. Gregory Miller.

National Guard Bureau Annual Rifle Tournament awards were presented to individual and team members by the Governor. The state winner in individual rifle fire was Sergeant First Class William R. Moon of the 1436 Engineer Company of Muskegon. Moon is a resident of Fremont. The winning state team in

at Grayling Christian School

Pastor Robert Barnett has announced that registration for the Fall semester at Grayling Christian School will be conducted Tuesday, July 25th in the school facilities located in Calvary Baptist Church, one and one-half miles West of Grayling on M-72.

Grayling Christian is in its third year of operation. They have state certified teachers for all ages in all subjects. The facilities meet all state requirements for health and safety. Students are accepted without regard to race, color, national origin, sex or religious preference.

Educational materials are centered in and related to Jesus Christ and the Bible. The result is moral and ethical instruction much needed in our permissive society.

Discipline is strict and the work load hard. Students are encouraged to become leaders, not followers. Hard work and self-discipline are praised and rewarded as building blocks to success in life.

Love and respect for the United States of America is constantly promoted. Patriotism and loyalty are taught as virtues. The Free-enterprise system is exaulted above socialism.

The home is exalted as the most important basic social institution. Dad and Mom are declared to be representatives of God who are to be respected, obeyed and loved.

The school still has room for more students, especially from kindergarten through the sixth grade. For more information contact Pastor Barnett at the church. Phone 348-4220.

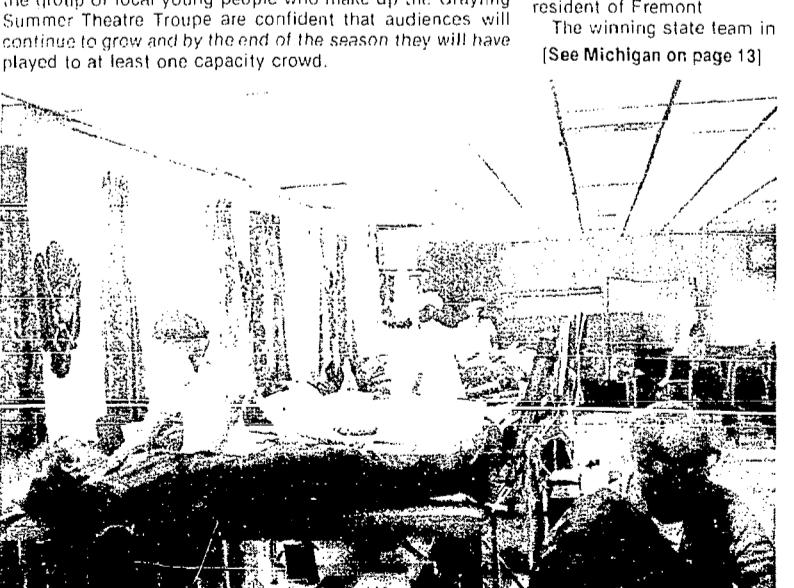

DESIGN MINUTEMAN—Posing with the MINUTEMAN, symbol of the Michigan Army National Guard, are Specialist 4 Fred R. Perrin (left) and Staff Sergeant John W. Cudney. Perrin and Cudney added a new lace in time for the Guard's annual training July 8-22, at Camp Grayling, Mich. Perrin, 33, from Grayling and Cudney, 35, from Copemish are responsible for the artistic design of the center. (126 Public Affairs Detachment Photo)

Summer Theatre Continues

Final Performance Of "Death of a Salesman", Saturday

On Saturday evening, July 22nd, the first Grayling Summer Theatre will bring down the curtain on their final performance of the American Theatre Classic, "Death of a Salesman". The closing of this show leaves two shows still in performance and one yet to be premiered. Other performances scheduled for this week are "Last of the Red Hot Lovers" on Wednesday evening, July 19 and the mystery classic "Wait Until Dark" scheduled for Friday, July 21. All of these performances are held in the Joseph Stripe Auditorium with the curtain going up for all performances at 8:15. Doors at the Grayling High School will open at 7:30 and tickets are available at the door.

As of yet, audience participation for Grayling's first Summer Theatre has not been what was hoped for. However, the group of local young people who make up the Grayling Summer Theatre Troupe are confident that audiences will continue to grow and by the end of the season they will have played to at least one capacity crowd.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOODMOBILE was in town last Wednesday at the American Legion Hall and 81 donors came out to give generously to save, perhaps, the life of a fellow man. A significant highlight of this bank was the fact that the first four donors on hand this year were giving, collectively, 170 pints. The four included Chuck Fick (53 pints), George Bielski, Jr. (49), Werdon Morris (34) and Bernie Fowler (34). That represents over 21 gallons of blood given by these contributors in their blood-donor careers. No more perfect example of human dedication could possibly be demonstrated. GRAYLING, MICHIGAN — THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1978

From Our Corner....

Yes, Dear Readers, our R and R weekend turned out perfect... the boss got in 18 holes of golf, and won a prize for her efforts, and we enjoyed ourself by just walking around the grounds smelling the flowers, along with girl-watching, the sunny weather seemed to bring out the best.

We were also most fortunate to have our room overlooking the pool...

Sugar Loaf is sort of unique from other resorts we have been to in that they have their own air strip. Friday evening we watched a small jet land, and there were at least eight small planes tied up out in front of the lodge all the time we were there. On Saturday afternoon they were selling rides in gliders they have, and if you wish they will teach you how to fly one, which really didn't intrigue us, but, we liked watching those in the air, until it started interfering in our girl-watching.

Now I realize how come we had a sore neck at the Saturday evening banquet...

Friday evening the group enjoyed a western barbecue on the lawn in front of the lodge, which was the first time we blew our cholesterol diet... then we thought, what the heck, you only go through one time... and we had already stopped to smell the flowers... after the weekend, our next egg will have to be for August 12th, 1978.

At Saturday night's banquet, the speaker was the Honorable Frank Kelley, Attorney General, pinch-hitting for Governor Milliken. (he said it). We have listened to Mr. Kelley on other occasions and have enjoyed his presentation and wit...

Monday brought us back to the reality that there was work to be done, even though we played the weekend... we sit here this evening wondering what connection our weekend had in common with what is really going on in our little county...

That is until we remembered the remark Mr. Kelley made, quote "contrary to public belief, I do not get up in the morning, and look out the window, and say, 'it is so nice out I think I will pass on X number of opinions today.'" Much time is involved with each opinion in researching...

What is germain to the Attorney General's opinion relative to Crawford County is the fact that a request has been sent to his office on whether the road commissioners have the power to vote themselves as participants of a life, health, accident and hospitalization insurance?

An attorney with a law firm in Lansing researched the question with these results... in part...

"The statutory language is quite clear that the insurance programs may be provided 'for employees under its jurisdiction'. It is well established that a county road commission is an employer. Wayne County Civil Service Commission v Board of Supervisors, 384 Michigan 363 (1971). The county road commissioners are not 'employees' under its jurisdiction' within the statutory language, and are thus not entitled to participate in the group insurance programs. This interpretation is supported by an opinion of the Attorney General which construed identical language in a predecessor statute to exclude participation by road commissioners in a retirement plan, 1945-46 OAG, O-4290. Furthermore, participation by the road commissioners in the group insurance program could run afoul of MCLA 224.10a; MSA 9.110. This statute prohibits a road commissioner from entering into any contract in which the commissioners have a pecuniary interest, whether direct or indirect. The receipt of the insurance coverage under a group insurance program would constitute a direct pecuniary interest in the contract with the insurance carrier.

"Therefore, it is our opinion that MCLA 224.10a; MSA 9.110 (1) does not authorize the county road commission to provide group insurance coverage for the member commissioners."

If any of our readers know Frank very well (we don't), just pass the word we would like an early opinion.

By the way... while we are on the subject of the road commission... last week, just prior to our R and R, we were told an engineer from Green Bay, Wisconsin is flown here each week (possibly his own plane) to handle the work that John Keir was fired for to save money for the county.

Now, if this is true, and to us it is almost out of the realm of realization, something has to be done to corral this situation... the sooner, the better.

Just in case a few of our readers wondered if we stopped in Traverse, we did, going and coming, and wish to report that T.J. and Stef along with mom and dad are real fine, and their monster pup seems to get bigger all the time

It was a fun weekend... we recommend it to anyone who feels the world is closing in on them... have a nice weekend... smile... and the world will smile with you...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

The Marriage Of Jesus Christ
Revelation 19:7-9

At least 6 places in the New Testament indicate to us that Jesus Christ will take a bride before His return to earth to rule for 1000 years here upon the earth. For references read John 3:29; Romans 7:4; 2 Corinthians 11:2; Ephesians 5:25-33; and Revelation 19:7-8; 21:1-22:7.

The bride of Jesus Christ, as you have found by your scripture reading, is the church. The true church is that group of born-again believers, both dead and living, from Pentecost to the Rapture, who have exercised personal faith and trust in the Person, Word and Work of Jesus Christ alone for their forgiveness of sins and eternal life.

The time of the marriage is near the close of the Great Tribulation. It will be between the close of the Judgment Seat of Christ and His revelation to earth. The Judgment Seat of Christ will be the place where "his wife hath made herself ready." It will be the place where her works will be rewarded by special white linen wedding garments. Some Christians will stand ashamed and poorly clothed for this occasion because of their failure to faithfully serve Jesus Christ now on earth.

The place of the marriage will be in Heaven. The church is the same as "the armies which were in heaven" of verse 14. Following the marriage the church will return to earth with her husband, Jesus Christ.

There should be a distinction made between the Marriage of Christ and the Marriage Supper of the Lamb in verse 9. The marriage will take place in Heaven but the marriage supper will be the earthly reception for the bride with Israel being our primary guest. Daniel 12:13 and Isaiah 26:19-21 make it clear that Israel will not be resurrected until after the Great Tribulation and the 2nd advent of Jesus Christ. As this includes all saints before Pentecost, so also Revelation 20:4-6 speaks of the tribulation saints saved after the rapture of the church. They will be resurrected after the close of the Great Tribulation.

We believe Matthew 22:1-14; Luke 14:16-24 and Matthew 25:1-13 all reveal to us a picture of Israel waiting for the return of the bridegroom Christ and His bride, the church.

Just as Jesus Christ is calling out a people today and preparing them to be His bride, so also, He shall prepare this earth in judgment one day soon to make it a fit place for a 1000 year honeymoon with His bride. Only those who trust Jesus Christ as Savior and God now, will have an opportunity to share in these future joys. (adv.)

Bits O' Talk

by Fay Bovee

Helen Catlin of Toledo was a visitor in Grayling for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Benson arrived back in Grayling Friday from Jacksonville, Fla., where Ceil has been for several weeks undergoing tests and staying with Dr. and Mrs. Curt Benson. She was enroute to Albuquerque, New Mexico, with her two sisters to visit a brother and was taken ill in Tulsa while visiting another sister. She was hospitalized there for a week before going to Florida. She is feeling much better again.

Recent visitors at the Dale Nicholas and Tony Nicholas homes were their father, Troy Nicholas of East Detroit. He accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Neister, formerly of East Detroit, friends of the Nicholas with whom they grew up.

Seventy-five members of the United Methodist Church enjoyed a Sunday afternoon canoe ride from Jolly Redskin and a picnic lunch at Burton's Landing.

On July 8, Mary Jane Knibbs drove her daughter, Holly, to Metro Airport where she left for York, England, to spend a year. Recent guests at the Knibbs home have been Jill Costello of Sheffield, England; Akin Erguden of Ankara, Turkey; and her family, Nancy and Jim and their guests, Michael Elliot and Cindy Chappell.

At the Parent-Child Center we learn from the things parents and children tell us. They are our teachers who let us know what it is like to be parents and children. In this month's column we are sharing a young mother's feelings of being rejected by her baby. This month's question and our answers come from the things many families talk about here at the center. If you have questions or ideas to share, call us at 366-7250 or write Box 406A, Route 1, Prudenville, 48851.

Question: I am the mother of a 7 week old daughter and I sometimes feel that my baby does not love me. When I look at her she seems to purposely look away from my face. She has done this consistently and I don't know why?

Answer: You sound disappointed and possibly hurt that your child does not look you straight in the eyes. It also sounds as though eye contact is very important to you.

Indeed eye contact is important for many parents and is one of the "goodies" that parents usually receive from their babies. Parents may find themselves in the position of not getting very many "goodies" from their child. This is unfortunate because parents need these things from their babies just as babies need nurturing and love from their parents.

When Mom or Dad changes the babies diapers, feeds and bathes him, and spends other things doing many of the jobs parents do with their babies, it can be exhausting. Parents need something to keep them going with their baby. Often this something is a smile from their baby or a touch with his feet and hands. These things can make parents feel good about their interactions with their baby.

When parents can see and hear that they have a nice impact on their children, it gives them good feelings about their relationship with their children. When parents don't see or hear messages from their baby that makes them feel good, it can lessen the parents' willingness to interact with their baby. Babies who consistently look away from the parents can also cause parents to feel hurt and rejected. It must certainly feel lonely and rejecting to a Mom or Dad who tries to look at their baby face to face and the baby seems to ignore them.

Parents who feel rejected and "unloved" by their baby may find it helpful to share their feelings and observations with a friend, husband or wife. Sometimes just talking about it helps but you may also find a person who understands your concerns and tries to help you. Wouldn't it be refreshing to hear this person say, "Gee, I felt that way when my child stiffened up when I picked him up." Hearing someone say, "I have had similar feelings" can set one's mind to ease sometimes. It would also be nice if this person could point out specific things to you that you weren't aware of with respect to your interactions with your baby. Suppose he told you that he noticed your baby turn his head and look at you when you began to walk out of the room. Wouldn't it be a nice feeling to hear that your baby does purposely look at you? These good feelings can encourage you to continue looking at your baby.

When parents can feel loved by their babies, they feel much more comfortable and free to share their love with their baby.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

In a quiet home wedding, Kim Cornell and Doug Randall of Houghton Lake and Prudenville were united in marriage on Saturday, July 8, 1978, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith, on Evergreen Drive. A reception was held immediately following for the family and guests.

The Flight A gals in the Wednesday morning league are going to have to hustle their putts as Flight B's Jeannette Kitchen put in 15 putts, Flight C's Mickey Perez put in 15 putts while three of Flight A put in 16 putts; Mary Jane Knibbs, Ruth Nielsen and Kathryn Stewart.

An unusual string of chip-ins on number 2 hole on Wednesday morning, July 12, occurred. One golfer from each flight sunk their chip shot. Kathryn Stewart in A, JoAnn Olsen in B and Mickey Perez in C. It gave both Kathryn and JoAnn a bird entitling them to a pin (the kind one wears, not on the green).

Tying for low gross in A were Corrine Smith and Mary Pettengill with a 45 each and for low net, Mary Jane Knibbs and Mary Pettengill with a 35 each. In B, Evelyn Gardiner took both low gross and net with 49 and 32. In C Doris Harland again took low gross with a 56 and Mickey Perez, low net with a 30.

Flight B furnished the delicious potluck and our guest for lunch was Marilyn Longworth, a former auxiliary member.

The Grayling Golf Club Auxiliary cookbooks are here and are available at the clubhouse for $3.00.

Mt. Hope's Vacation School!

Pastor Paul A. Weber announces that the annual Vacation Bible School of Mt. Hope Lutheran will be conducted on the premises of the church located at Vine and Spruce during the week of July 31 through August 4 with many varied activities to delight young children geared for 4-year olds and through the 7th grade.

All children of the community are welcome to attend. There is no cost involved.

The agenda covers five major interests: Studying God's Word, Crafts, Songs, Fellowship and of course Refreshments. Convenient are the hours for the sessions, 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Mary Kay Blaauw is chairperson, while Kay Iions and Candy Weber head the Crafts department. Kay Selheim will serve as chairperson for refreshments. Promotion is being handled by Sandy Fleming, while Jill Wyman will be hostess for a planned Thursday Night Open House, (which proved so popular last year).

In '77 the attendance was well over 100 and from the interest already generated it looks like Mt. Hope Lutheran Vacation Bible School should easily surpass last season's attendance, states Pastor Paul Weber.

Will you be among the happy scholars?

THANK YOU

Thanks for the prayers, cards, visits and to Rev. Frye for his support while I was at Munson Hospital.

The latest addition to downtown is the outlet for the J and R Florist which moved into Wieber's Emporium. Their bright flowers lined the front of the building over the weekend and by the time this is printed, the corner planter will probably have been brightened up. The Mercantile planters are bright with a different variety of flowers this year and down the street, the Chieft Shoppeagon Hotel has their new overhangs and front finished after a delay. Miller Hardware has colorful marigolds along the business loop.

Over on the south side, Mrs. Gildner's petunias are brightening up the neighborhood. The Shuraleffs at the old church have flowers around it, while down on Madson Street, the Robert Gildners have a variety of flowers in their planters and the Warrens have their usual display of flowers everywhere, flower boxes and an unusual planter in the front yard.

Cindi Shepler of Petoskey spent the first weekend in July with her parents, the Arthur Carlsons. Her mother accompanied her home and spent a few days and together they attended the Young Americans show in Petoskey.

Cindi Shepler of Petoskey, Rod and Julie Powers of Hart, Christine Olson and daughter, Jenny and Corlynn Meech of Grayling spent a week recently vacationing in Florida.

Recent guests of John, Norma, and Jenny Naour were Mr. and Mrs. Renus Doulen from Richmond, Indiana. Accompanying Norma's aunt and uncle were her mother, Mrs. Charles Miller, from Oak Park, Michigan. After spending a day on the lake they all continued on to Cadillac, where they joined Norma's sister and family for dinner and more family chatter.

Norma's nephew, Charles Miller, of Dearborn, spent a few days of his summer vacation with the Naours. Being 16, he really enjoyed the swimming and boating.

Earl "Chum" and Marilyn Longworth are spending July and August at Waverly's guest house on the AuSable and enjoying visiting with friends. They spent some time in Saginaw with family and friends enroute to Grayling from their home in Florida.

Earns Army Promotion

FORT BRAGG, N. C.— Leroy T. Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie W. Pickering, 6311 Karen St., Grayling, recently was promoted to Army private first class while serving with the 32nd Medical Depot at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Pickering entered the Army in July 1977.

The private is a 1977 graduate of Grayling High School.

Camp Shawano Activities

July 11, 1978

Members present: Julia Kroll and Carol Wieber, Mr. Bruce Haines. Camp Council members present: Cliff, Todd, Jerry & Mark. Statistics given by Mr. Haines for the month of June: 7 new boys admitted, 10 released, 2 transferred to other programs, average length of stay 5.25 months, 11 truancies involving 9 different boys (10 from camp and 1 from a home visit), 15 home visits, 45 on roster at end of month with 35 in camp, 4 on truancy status and 6 on Leave of Absence.

Mr. Haines announced that the camp now has a slide projector for use by the council on their slide presentations. The American Business Women's Association has requested a presentation on August 15th at their monthly dinner. Mrs. Kroll will call them and make arrangements.

The campers had several ideas for changes at camp:

1. Would like bedtime moved from 10 pm to 11 pm on week nights. After a general discussion, Mr. Haines agreed to discuss it with staff at conference.

2. Would like laundry time changed, possibly to after dinner. Mr. Haines said he would have to get feedback from staff and could possibly bring it up at conference.

3. Clarification of why tape players and stereos are not allowed any more. Mr. Haines explained that too many boys were just sitting and listening to music and not participating in activities or school classes, etc.

4. Would like to have short sleeved shirts for crew in summer time as the long sleeved ones are too hot. Mr. Haines to look into the possibility of such a change.

5. Request for a pay raise of $1.00 a day for kitchen crew. Mr. Haines explained that this had been discussed by staff a short time ago and they were agreed that it was not feasible as this is a learning course, even though boys do work longer hours than on crew.

6. Would like the passing food rule revoked. The cooks complain of waste but boys are not allowed to pass food on to others when they cannot eat it after taking it. (boys sometimes bigger than stomachs) Reason for this rule was to eliminate the possibility of boggarding by some boys. Mr. Haines said he will discuss it with staff.

7. Rule on visits--boys who have no visits could possibly be taken off grounds by parents of other boys, or have neighbors visit as long as they are responsible adults. This to be checked out with counselors.

8. Religion program. Mr. Haines said he had made arrangements with Mr. Morse to have boys sign up on Sat. who would like to go to church on Sunday so volunteers from the community, or perhaps a staff member, could be recruited to take boys to church in town.

The new Trail Guides for new campers was distributed. These have just recently been revised by staff committee and are now printed and ready for distribution. Every CAAC member to receive one, as well as Camp Council members, and all staff.

Mrs. Kroll asked Mr. Haines if it would not be possible to have a different staff member present at each council meeting so that the members could become acquainted with the staff. Now that we have full staffing this will be done.

Mrs. Kroll emphasized to the camp council members that the CAAC does not have any authority to change anything at camp, only an advisory group which is a go-between the town and the camp and the boys. Most policy type issues (rules and regulations) are handled by staff team. Mr. Haines has veto power, but prefers not to use it unless absolutely necessary, as it is important to stress staff team cooperation.

It was decided to drop Mr. Ellingboe and Mr. Lee from the membership roll. Mrs. Kroll announced that she was trying to interest several parties to become new members and wanted to encourage other members to start recruiting.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, August 1st at 7:00 p.m.

Lansing Report

by Rep. Ralph Osting

WHERE YOUR TAXES GO

Everyone is complaining about taxes these days, but have you ever considered where your money goes after the state grabs its share of your paycheck every payday?

Paying taxes is considered by many a fact of life, an inevitable, unavoidable practice about which not much can be done. Read on, and next time you open the envelope that contains your paycheck look over the deductions and think about the following:

Total state spending is up 180 percent in the past decade, with each state resident paying $602 for state services programs and benefits.

The largest increase in state spending the past decade has come in health, education and welfare. Eighty-one cents out of every one of your tax dollars goes for programs in one of these three areas.

In particular, Medicaid, the program that pays for medical care for people who could not otherwise afford it, has grown into an eight-legged octopus.

The state spent $62.9 million for Medicaid in 1968; the legislature a few weeks ago passed the budget with the Medicaid appropriation set at $446.6 million for 1979-80. The federal government will match that money.

State spending on general assistance, a program in which the state takes over most assistance programs from financially hard pressed counties, went from $14.8 million a decade ago to $124.8 million this year.

State aid to families with dependent children has increased from $48.1 million a decade ago to $389.9 million.

The biggest chunk of your tax money goes for education. The state will spend over $2 billion in 1979-80 on education, and the federal government will kick in an additional $1 billion. Half of the cost of elementary and secondary education and over 60 percent of the costs of public colleges and universities is paid by the state.

In addition, the past decade has seen the creation or rapid growth of state agencies to aid crime victims, women, Spanish-speaking citizens, Indians, artists, senior citizens and consumers.

In these days of escalating inflation and with people demanding tax reform, we in the legislature are going to have to make some hard decisions about where limited tax monies will go in the future. We no longer will have the luxury to hand out money to every group that comes to Lansing and tells us that they "need" a big increase for their special interests.

Readers respond to column
on school boards poll

Richard Milliman

Regardless of what some folks may think, The Almanack does have readers. I can prove the existence of at least two. They both wrote to me about a recent column; the correspondence was so heavy, therefore, that it had to be recognized, which is the reason for this column.

What caused such an outpouring of public sentiment was the column about how tough it is getting to fill school board jobs with competent people, or, in some cases, with any people at all. I quoted a story based on a poll conducted by The Detroit News among school boards in Southeastern Michigan:

"Those willing to take on such formidable tasks (serving on a school board) are becoming fewer in number. In some communities, the few local resident willing to take on the thankless job of school board members are running unopposed. Others are serving short terms, then resigning, claiming the hard decisions they must make on millage issues, labor problems, and teachers' contract discussions simply aren't worth the hassle."

Some of the findings of The News survey indicated fewer people with "top management" experience were running for school boards; more women were serving, more friction was developing between administrators and boards, and more teachers were running for school boards.

The last point is what got me in trouble. The News story reported: "More teachers are running for school boards in their home districts."

I interpreted that report, and reprinted it, thus: "More teachers are running for school board jobs in the district where they teach."

Up popped Kirk L. Curtis, executive director of the Jackson County Education Association, taking The Almanack to task—properly so. Teachers cannot serve on school boards in the district where they teach. The Michigan Attorney General has ruled that such service would be a conflict of interest; "the compatibility of public offices."

Mr. Curtis pointed out my error, and I appreciate it. Teachers can serve on school boards where they live if they teach in another district. Curtis pointed out, and added that he favors teachers on school boards under those conditions.

Campers Can Call DNR To Check Park Vacancies

LANSING — The Department of Natural Resources reminds campers that reports on state park vacancies are available by phone.

Campers can call from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday these DNR phone numbers: 517/373-1220 in Lansing,

Decline of About 10 Per Cent Found in Kirtland's Warbler

LANSING — The Department of Natural Resources reports that the 1978 census of the Kirtland's Warbler shows a decline of about 10 per cent in world's population of this rare songbird.

The census, conducted under the general direction of Dr. Lawrence Ryel, Chief of the DNR's Surveys and Statistical Services Office, included personnel from the DNR, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, U.S. Forest Service, and interested members of the public.

John Byelich, retired DNR wildlife biologist and leader of the Kirtland's Warbler Recovery Team, says a total of 197 males was tallied this year compared to 219 in 1977. Assuming an equal number of females, the total breeding population would be just under 400, he says.

The Kirtland's Warbler Recovery Team is an U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service appointed team assembled for the purpose of preparing a plan for the recovery of the endangered Kirtland's Warbler.

In the northern Lower Peninsula, the traditional breeding range of the rare bird, census takers found 193 males, down from 218 in 1977.

"Birds were found in six counties in the northern Lower Peninsula," says Ryel. "Most of the decline was in Ogemaw County, which had 22 less males this year."

The 1978 counts by county were: Crawford 71, Oscoda 62, Ogemaw 40, Kalkaska 16, Iosco 2, and Roscommon 2.

A total of four Kirtland's Warblers were found outside of Michigan during the survey.

"Other governmental bodies and agencies are eroding the local decision-making authority. Local boards of education and administrators are being forced to implement major direction-setting mandates without the prerogative of rejection or modification to meet a local situation."

"Local customs and practices are being bypassed by the U.S. Congress, Supreme Court, the state legislature, public employee unions, etc., which have little concern or sensitivity for local situations. There governmental bodies have the right to function, but not at the expense of local control and decision-making."

"Thus your statement—that leaves the school board's job primarily one of selling millage campaigns and bond issues—unfortunately is an accurate conclusion."

Again, I thank Supt. Burns for taking the time and trouble to share his views with me, and I'm happy to pass them on to my other reader.

The bill, Senate Bill 189, was approved Tuesday by a House-Senate conference committee at a level of $1.50 per acre. The original bill, sponsored by Senator Joe Mack and Davis, set the payments at $2.00 per acre. The House of Representatives approved the bill at $1.16 per acre, or double the current level. Both Davis and Mack served on the conference committee.

Present "swamp tax" payments are set at 58 cents per acre with 19 cents per acre going to the county, 19 cents per acre to the townships and 20 cents per acre to the school systems in the county. The payments to the schools are over and above any state aid.

"I'm happy with the final bill," Davis said. "In a situation like we had, you have to accept a compromise. The $1.50 is a reasonable compromise and almost triples the present level.

In a Legislature overwhelmingly dominated by downstate metropolitan lawmakers, we were fortunate to get an increase like this."

The majority of all state tax-reverted lands fall north of a line from Bay City to Big Rapids. Over 2 million acres of tax-reverted lands are located in counties in Davis' district.

"I think it's only fair that the state pay a reasonable sum in lieu of taxes on these lands. Millions of acres of land in Northern and Upper Michigan are held by the state and therefore, do not provide any tax revenues for the local governments," Davis explained. "And yet, these local people have to maintain the roads on these lands and provide essential services. The schools also suffer because of the lack of property tax generated."

The $1.50 per acre will be divided among the same three units with 60 cents per acre going to the county, 60 cents to the townships and 30 cents to the schools.

Following is the amounts Crawford County will realize under the bill for its 154,508 tax-reverted acres.

Chairman For C-F Campaign

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation today announced the names of local leaders in the 1978 Breath of Life Campaign throughout the state of Michigan. Caroline R. MacPhail has been named Crawford County Chairman.

The Breath of Life Campaign, to be held in Michigan in Sept., supports research to find a cure for Cystic Fibrosis, a leading genetic killer of American children, and specialized medical care for children with all lung-damaging diseases in 120 CF Centers in the U.S. Local children affected by CF, severe asthma, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis and recurrent pneumonia are treated at the CF Centers across the nation, five of which are in Michigan.

Cystic Fibrosis, the most serious of children's lung diseases, is an inherited condition affecting the lungs and digestive system of its victims.

While both parents must be carriers of the recessive CF gene, there are over 400,000 (1 out of 20) carriers within Michigan alone.

According to Gene Riley, State Campaign Chairman, "Breath of Life Campaign contributions truly can lengthen the lives of children with CF. As Riley explains, "In 1955, when the CF Foundation was established, few children with CF survived to school age. Today, thanks to advancements in research and care, a child with CF who is diagnosed early and promptly begins comprehensive medical care has a 50 percent chance of living past age 18."

September has been designated as Cystic Fibrosis month throughout the nation by the National Health Council.

Alumni News

By Clara Sorenson

I cut this out of a paper some time ago. The time is right to use it. Quoted, "The back-to-basics movement in American education is as old as the little red school house. It is not new. It's just being recycled again," said Josephine Spear, associate professor of education at Indiana University. When you talk about going back to basics, how far back are you talking about? She asked this question at a recent English teachers conference. Then she cited these critiques of American education 1890-: In the complaints drawn up by colleges against High Schools, it is the inability to write passably correct English that is most severely complained of 1910-: It is a common complaint among business men that young people seeking employment are not well-grounded in the fundamentals. 1917-: From every college in the country goes up the cry: Our freshmen can't spell, can't punctuate. 1965-: The English language is dying because it is not being taught."

How very fortunate we were at G.I.F.S. to have Norine Bern Hansen as our English and Literature teacher. She taught her subjects as she knew them—well. She was one of a kind. We remember her with affection.

Many thanks to three more teachers who have retired here: Ben Pausch, Alice Lalimer, Gere Putter-Sherfield.

Attend the Church of Your ChoiceDIRECTION AND HOPE

You can find plenty of Biblical texts about the wind. That's not why so many colonial churches have weather vanes atop their steeples.

Our early American ancestors were religious—and practical. A weathercock had to be mounted well above trees and roofs which could alter the course of the wind. Often the local church steeple was the highest place.

Nor is there anything irreverent in the custom. For centuries man has looked to the Church for guidance, direction, hope. It seems natural as he pursues his daily work to look to the Church to see which way the wind blows.

We get our weather news today from press, radio and TV. But look to the church of your choosing to gain the faith and courage that see reverent souls through "fair wind or foul."

Mrs. Carr stated that she felt it was unnecessary to have the music so loud and that the music has kept her awake at night. Mrs. Regan concurred in this feeling. Mr. McEvers stated that since the state has licensed the operation there seems to be little that the City can do. Mr. Burr said that they have spent two nights rearranging the loud speakers to try to reconcile the problems. He has terminated the band and hired another (local) band. Mr. Bishop stated that Saturday night he was unable to sleep due to the noise. He also said that he was in favor of the project but felt that it should be controlled so that the noise did not infringe on other people's rights.

*Mr. Thompson was now present.

Mr. Burr said this, "I am doing all that I can do." Mr. McEvers responded that apparently Mr. Burr was doing just what he wanted to do. Mr. Burr stated that he has lost $487.50 by terminating his band. Mr. Bishop said that he feels like a "second class" citizen. Mr. McEvers stated that he didn't know how to respond to that statement. Mr. Miles said that the first week of operation the Police did receive numerous complaints. They were willing to act but could get no one to sign a complaint but they were willing to act any time they received a signed complaint.

Mr. Morford presented a report on Sheriff Department complaints handled within the city for the first 6 months of 1978.

Mr. Morford presented a memo from Chief Stephan relative to parking activity in the city park. Drinking and throwing of empty cans and bottles has become a real problem. Chief Stephan said that drinking, noise, ground fires, and driving have become major problems. It is reaching the point where people who would like to use the park for proper purposes are now reluctant to do so. Motion was made by Thompson and supported by Golnick that Council adopt a park rule that there be no open alcoholic beverages in the City Park between the hours of 10:00 p.m. until 10:00 a.m., effective immediately.
